STANDING RULES OF THE NEVADA REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE

CHAPTER ONE – BASIC RULES

§ 1.0 Establishment of the Standing Rules.

The Standing Rules of the Nevada Republican Central Committee (NRCC) are hereby established. They are adopted under authority of § 2 of the General Rules of Order of the NRCC.

§ 2.0 Definition of the General Rules of Order.

The terms “General Rules of Order” or “General Rules” as used and referenced in the Standing Rules are defined pursuant to Article 14 of the NRCC Bylaws as the latest revision which has been in publication for at least two years of ROBERT’S RULES OF ORDER NEWLY REVISED. The General Rules are distinct and separate from the Standing Rules.

§ 3.0 Adoption and Amendment of Standing Rules.

Pursuant to the General Rules, Standing Rules may be adopted, amended or repealed by a simple majority vote of the NRCC. Notice of new proposed rules must be given in accordance with the NRCC Bylaws.

§ 4.0 Mechanics of Chapters.

Chapters are documents that are the core component of the Standing Rules. Each Chapter must be assigned its own Chapter Number and Chapter Title. The mechanics of how each individual Chapter is organized is built around the division of each Chapter:

Subsection 4.1 - Chapters are divided into Sections.

Subsection 4.2 - Sections are divided into Subsections.

Subsection 4.3 - Subsections are divided into Paragraphs.

Subsection 4.4 - Paragraphs are divided into Sub-paragraphs.

§ 5.0 Numbering system of the Chapters.

Chapters are divided into sections using the following syntax: § A.AA (*) () where the diacritic symbol § indicates this is a reference to a section number, A represents any single numeric character 1 through 999, AA represents any single numeric character 1 through 99, * represents any lower case alphabetical character a through z and  represents any Roman numeral expressed with lower case alphabetical characters. A typical reference under the system used in a Chapter would be “§ 5.6 (d) (iv)” where;

Subsection 5.1 - The number (5) preceding the period indicates that the material is in Section five of the Chapter, and;

Subsection 5.2 - The number (6) following the period indicates that the material is in Subsection six of Section five, and;

Subsection 5.3 - The letter (d) indicates that the material is in Paragraph d of Subsection six, and;

Subsection 5.4 - The Roman numeral (iv) indicates that the material is in Sub-paragraph four of Paragraph d.

Subsection 5.5 - This reference is read aloud as “Section five point six, paragraph d four”.

STANDING RULES OF THE NEVADA REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE

CHAPTER TWO – PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE POLL RULES

§ 1.0 Procedure to conduct Presidential Preference Poll.

Subsection 1.1

- a) Each county central committee shall provide for a secret ballot for the Presidential Preference Poll.
- b) Each county central committee shall follow identification verification procedures, including the requirement for each person to show proof of identification and US and Nevada citizenship, satisfied by presenting a government issued photo ID, such as a driver's license, passport, or military ID. Driver Authorization Cards are not an acceptable form of ID. Each county chair will receive training on how to verify identity not later than November 30, in the year prior to the PPP.
- c) Only individuals who have filed with the NRP Secretary by sending a notice by e-mail to caucus@nevadagop.org as a Republican candidate for President of the United States shall appear on the ballots. Any such person so filing must meet all the legal requirements to be a Republican candidate for President and must pay a filing fee, at the time of filing, to the Nevada Republican Party in an amount to be determined by the NRP Executive Committee, payable via wire or check. No candidate shall appear on the ballot without proof of completed payment. The deadline for filing shall be determined by the NVGOP Executive Committee. As the NVGOP has a vested interest in ensuring the integrity of the nomination process, any candidate who participates in any non-binding primary election in the state of Nevada that occurs outside the direct oversight of the NVGOP will be declared ineligible to participate in the Presidential Preference Poll and shall be ineligible to receive any delegates.
- d) The ballots shall be opened, tallied, and announced at the Precinct Meeting in full view of all participating electors who wish to observe. Voting for the Presidential Preference Poll may only be conducted in a Precinct Meeting, except for absentee military ballots as provided for in § 4.0 of this chapter. All Precinct Meetings must provide for voting in the Poll.

Subsection 1.2

- a) Each county central committee shall have sign-in sheets based on county voter registration rolls no later than 30 days prior to the PPP that persons voting in the Presidential Preference Poll must be signed. The same sign-in sheets must be used for the Poll. The express purpose and intent of this Subsection is to prevent anyone from voting twice in the poll. Voters must be signed in by precinct, and votes tallied by precinct in order to ensure no votes are counted twice.

Subsection 1.3

- a) No person shall be allowed to participate in the Presidential Preference Poll at the Precinct Meeting who does not already appear as a registered Republican on the voter rolls for that precinct not less than thirty (30) days prior to the day of the meeting. Same day registration is prohibited. In the event of any disputes pertaining to registration status, a provisional ballot may be cast until such time as voter registration can be confirmed. Government provided identification with a photo such as a driver's license, ID Card, or passport must be provided by each person in order to vote. Attendees may vote in the Presidential Preference Poll anytime during the meeting until the scheduled end of the precinct meeting.

Subsection 1.4 – Security Procedures

- a) The precinct meeting staff must securely seal ballots and tally sheets in a container with a tamper proof seal in full view of the attendees,
- b) The NRP Executive Committee must adopt Standing Rules prescribing the following specific required procedures regarding a recount under this section:
 - i) Transporting the ballots.
 - ii) What address they must be sent to.
 - iii) Under what conditions they are to be transported.
 - iv) How and when the containers may be reopened.
 - v) What observers may be present.
 - vi) Establishing a deadline by which the ballots are to be returned to their respective county central committees.

Subsection 1.5 - Each county central committee shall communicate the times, locations of all precinct meetings and the names of all precinct meeting chairs to the NRP Secretary not less than 60 days prior to the date of the precinct meetings. The NRP Secretary shall publish this information on the NRP website within 48 hours of receiving it.

Subsection 1.6 - Candidate Campaign Procedures

1. Only employed representatives and official surrogates of presidential campaigns who have requested and received pre-approval from the NVGOP will be allowed to speak at any precinct meeting unless they are a registered Republican voter residing in that precinct. Surrogate approval can be requested at caucus@nevadagop.org up to 24 hours prior to the caucus. Any campaign which attempts to disrupt or interrupt the caucus process by using a non-approved campaign surrogate will be subject to a minimum fine of $5000 per instance, with the total fine issued being determined by the NVGOP Executive Board. Any campaign which has incurred fines for disrupting caucus proceedings and has failed to pay them prior to the NVGOP Convention shall be ineligible to have delegates allocated to that candidate.
2. In accordance with FEC regulations, no employees of ‘Super PACs’, also known as ‘independent expenditure committees’, shall be allowed to speak or represent any campaign as this would present unlawful and unauthorized coordination between the NVGOP and that entity. At no time will any representative of a Super PAC as defined above be allowed to attend precinct meetings, unit, local city, county, or state conventions or caucuses unless they are a valid voter in that locality in accordance with the Republican Party of the state.
3. Under no circumstances shall delegate and/or alternate lists, caucus attendee lists, committee lists, or any other such list be released to or made available to any Super PAC, PAC, or other organization claiming to support or represent any Presidential campaign. Such lists may only be provided to official Presidential campaigns.

4. Any proposed delegate and/or alternate slates or lists for all caucuses and conventions, including but not limited to; local, county, city, unit, congressional district, state, and national conventions, may not originate from any Super PAC as defined above.
5. Should such representatives of Super PACS be allowed to attend precinct meetings, unit, local city, county, or state conventions or caucuses, they will not be allowed on the floor of such meeting/caucus/convention, nor allowed to address any such meeting unless they are a credentialed delegate or alternate delegate to the convention, or a legitimate and valid attendee of any caucus or precinct meeting.
6. No literature from any Super PAC as defined above will be permitted on the floor of any convention, caucus, or other such meeting whose purpose is part of the delegate selection process.
7. Super PACs as defined above shall not be permitted to display, promote, or distribute literature, or take any other similar actions either outside or inside the location of all meetings, caucuses, conventions or any other gathering related to the selection of delegates or alternates.

§ 2.0 Calculation and Reporting of Presidential Preference Poll Results.

Subsection 2.1

- a) The ballots cast for each Presidential Candidate on the Presidential Preference Poll shall be tallied by precinct immediately after voting closes. Ballots must be counted using official tally sheets, and must be retained in accordance with the procedures developed by the NVGOP for record and retention purposes. Official vote tellers must print their name as it appears on their voter registration, provide the date and time the tally was completed, and sign the tally sheets in order for the votes to be counted as valid.
- a) Neither “write-in” ballots nor a “none of the above” option shall be permitted.
- b) Any ballot cast for more than one candidate shall be declared invalid.
- c) The vote tally for each Precinct must be read aloud at the meeting and communicated to the county central committee before the ballots may leave the site of the Precinct Meeting. The vote tallies shall then be consolidated to provide the individual precinct and county total number of votes cast for each candidate in the county.

d) The vote counted at each individual Precinct Meeting is the official vote except as provided for in Section 4.0. Neither the NVGOP nor any county party shall recount ballots after the adjournment of a precinct meeting except in cases of a recount as specified in Section 12 of this rule.

a) The Secretary or other designated officer of the county central committee shall then certify and communicate both the individual precinct and consolidated county tallies to the Secretary of the Nevada Republican Party immediately following the Poll, but in no event later than midnight of the day following the day of the Precinct Meetings.

b) Upon receipt of all county tallies, the NRP Secretary shall consolidate and certify the county and state totals, and immediately communicate that information, including all individual precinct and county tallies, to each member of the NRP Executive Committee and the chair of each county central committee.

c) The NRP Secretary shall also post all precinct, county, and state results on the website of the Nevada Republican Party in the same process.

Subsection 2.3 – Each county central committee shall retain all ballots and tally sheets, and must ship or deliver them to the NVGOP headquarters within thirty (30) days of the caucus, where they will be archived for the period of not less than seven (7) years. All shipping costs will be paid by the NVGOP.

§ 3.0 No Binding of County Delegates.

It is the express intent and policy of the Nevada Republican Party that Delegates to County Conventions not be bound by the results of the Presidential Preference Poll in their respective Precinct Meetings except where required by law, but that binding shall occur as part of the National Delegate elections at the Nevada Republican Convention.

§ 4.0 Absentee Ballots.

Subsection 4.1

a) An absentee voter verification form and an absentee ballot template, as established at the end of this section, will be for the use of military personnel and their dependents, whether stationed inside or outside their county of registration, so they may cast an absentee ballot in the Presidential Preference Poll. Each county central committee will print and distribute absentee ballot packets to the military personnel or dependents requesting them.

b) Absentee ballot packets shall contain one (1) absentee voter verification form to which serial numbers for control and security purposes have been added, one (1) ballot without identifying features, which is to be sealed into a ballot envelope by the voter, one (1) ballot envelope, which shall have no markings except the voters precinct number and which is to be placed into the return envelope by the voter, and one (1) addressed return envelope.

c) It is the express intent and policy of the Nevada Republican Party that each county party shall take reasonable measures to ensure the secrecy of absentee ballots to the greatest degree feasible.

Subsection 4.2 – Military and dependent absentee ballots shall be returned to the county central committee where the voter is registered to vote by postal mail or delivery service. In order to be counted the absentee ballots must be received by the county central committee no later than 5 PM on the day before the Presidential Preference Poll is held. The Nevada GOP Executive Director will contact the Federal Voting Assistance Program Office to provide information on the caucus and how Military and their families may request absentee ballots.

Subsection 4.3 - The county central committee shall maintain, secure, and control the confidentiality of the absentee ballots until they are tallied. The ballots shall be tallied in the presence of not less than three elected officers of each county central committee and said process will be open to any registered Republican in the county who wishes to observe. The absentee votes cast will be added to the voter's respective precinct total, and will be reported as a distinct number from the in-person votes cast at the meeting.

§ 13.0 Alternative Presidential Preference Poll

Subsection 13.1

Such a poll shall be known as the “Alternative Presidential Preference Poll”, also referred to in the Standing Rules as the “Alternative Poll”.

CHAPTER THREE – DELEGATE BINDING RULES

§ 1.0 Proportional Allocation of Delegates and Alternates.

In accordance with the Rules of the Republican National Committee, in Presidential election years, the Nevada Republican Party chooses that its National Delegates and Alternates shall be allocated proportionally based on the final results of the Nevada Presidential Preference Poll, the Alternative Presidential Preference Poll or the Presidential Primary Election, as appropriate, rounded to the nearest whole number. All allocated Delegates shall be elected at the Nevada Republican Convention on behalf of all candidates who receive the percentage of vote required for one or more delegates. Any candidate who receives less than the percentage required for one Delegate will receive no Delegates.

§ 2.0 Nomination of National Delegates and Alternates.

Subsection 2.1

a) Nominations for the position of State and National Delegate and Alternate, whether At-Large or congressional district, shall be by self-nomination, and must meet the requirements of being a bona-fide Republican in good standing.

Subsection 2.5 - The NRP Secretary must also include a reminder in the Call that those elected as a National Delegate or Alternate Delegate must pay all their own expenses to the national Convention including registration, travel, meals and lodging.

Subsection 2.6 – No person who is otherwise qualified to be a Delegate to the Republican National Convention shall be eligible to hold such a position if, at any time following the adoption of this rule, that person, acting as a Delegate, has failed to uphold their obligation, as provided for in these rules or the Rules of the RNC, in support of a specific candidate. Subsection 2.7 – Each National Delegate nominee may optionally provide a biography or public statement of 250 words or less, along with their self-nomination, which shall be posted by the Secretary on the NRP website at least three (3) days prior to the Nevada Republican Convention. Additionally, the chairman of each county party, members of the NVGOP Steering Committee, and members of the NVGOP Executive Committee shall be considered Republicans in good standing by virtue of their committee membership, or by virtue of their elected or appointed office and are not subject to the above requirements.

Subsection 3.2 – National Delegates allocated to represent congressional districts (Congressional District National Delegates) shall be elected by the Nevada Republican Convention Delegates from each such congressional district. Each Delegate to the Nevada Republican Convention may vote for up to three (3) nominees for National Delegate for their congressional district. All nominees receiving votes shall be ranked in accordance with the number of votes received from highest to lowest. All nominees receiving votes shall be ranked in accordance with the number of votes received from highest to lowest. At-Large Delegate positions shall be assigned starting with the highest ranked nominee and continuing in descending order until all At-Large Delegate positions are filled, followed by Alternate positions to be assigned starting with the highest ranked nominee who did not win a Delegate position and continuing in descending order until all Alternate positions are filled.

Subsection 3.4 – Any ballot cast for the election of Congressional District or At-Large Delegates that has more votes cast than positions to be filled shall be declared void.

§ 4.0 Assignment of National Delegates and Alternates

Subsection 4.3 - The NRP Secretary will next allocate the three (3) Delegates from each congressional district based on the percentage of the vote each Delegate received among all Congressional District Delegates, beginning with the highest percentage of votes cast for that position, to their preferred candidate.

Subsection 4.4 - The Secretary will then allocate the remaining Delegates for each candidate, beginning with the preference of the At-Large national Delegate with the highest votes followed by the preference of the national Delegate receiving the second highest number of votes, and continuing in descending order of votes received until the number of Delegates earned by each candidate in the Presidential Preference Poll has been allocated.

Subsection 4.5 – Once all earned Delegates have been allocated to a specific candidate, the remaining Delegates must choose to be bound to a candidate with Delegate positions remaining; otherwise that Delegate will be assigned by the Secretary an obligation to one of the remaining candidates, regardless of preference.

Subsection 4.6 - Each Alternate will be assigned to a Delegate according to rank ordering of votes among both Delegates and Alternates at the State Convention and shall inherit that Delegate's candidate binding obligation for the purpose of temporary replacement on the floor of the National Nominating Convention. Permanent replacement of Delegates by Alternates shall be done in accordance with Section 7.0 of this Chapter. Alternates shall inherit the candidate binding of the Delegates they replace.

§ 5.0 Binding and Release of National Delegates and Alternates.

Subsection 5.1 All votes of National Delegates and Alternates – Automatic, At-Large and Congressional District – shall be required to be cast for the Presidential Candidate to whom they are bound. This requirement applies only to the first candidate vote at the Republican National Convention.

Subsection 5.2 In the event that a Presidential Candidate should win all the National Delegates, the NRP Chair shall be automatically unbound, without further action, in order to prevent violation of RNC rules prohibiting unit voting.

Subsection 5.3

a) The NRP Secretary shall contact each Presidential Candidate or the candidate's designated campaign representative in writing thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Nevada Republican Convention to determine the candidate's desired disposition of their National Delegates following the State Convention.

b) Each candidate may elect to either affirm the binding obligation of the delegates to be elected on their behalf at the Nevada Republican Convention, fully release the binding obligation of their delegates, or proportionally reallocate the binding obligation of their delegates to the remaining candidates based on the results of the Presidential Preference Poll or Alternative Presidential Preference Poll.

c) The NRP Secretary shall also inform each candidate or designated campaign representative that a response must be received in writing no less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the Nevada Republican Convention; otherwise the binding obligation of their delegates shall be fully released.

d) The Secretary shall provide an email summary of the candidate delegate-disposition information to all Nevada Republican Convention delegates within twenty-four (24) hours following the candidate reporting deadline. The Secretary shall also post the same information on the state party website within the same time frame.

Subsection 5.4

a) National Delegates and Alternates bound to any candidate who withdraws, suspends, or otherwise discontinues their campaign at any time following the Nevada Republican Convention but prior to the Republican National Convention shall be released from their commitment to that candidate and may vote as they choose on the first and any subsequent candidate votes at the Republican National Convention.
