ARTICLE 10: VOTING AND PROXIES

- Section 1. All voting and Ex-officio members who are present in person, or by proxy, have the right to vote on all matters coming before the NRCC and the Executive Committee, unless the proxy shall expressly state otherwise in writing.
- Section 2. Any voting member of the NRCC may assign a proxy for any regular or special meeting of the NRCC. A proxy form shall be included with the call to meeting sent to each member. The proxy form for each meeting shall have a unique identifier.
- Section 3. Proxy forms must be properly filled out and must include the member's signature, date or date and time when signed, and must designate a proxy holder by name or assign the proxy to "bearer" to be deemed valid and complete.
- Section 4. At each meeting, the Chairman shall instruct the Credentials Committee to examine all proxy forms, validate the signatures, and declare the names of those voting by proxy. Challenges to proxies shall be the first item of business
- Section 5. No person shall exercise more than two proxies.
- Section 6. The following rules shall govern to whom proxies may be assigned:
- A. Elected Constitutional Officers, Members of Congress, State and National Officers of the NRCC, immediate past officers of the NRCC may each give their proxy to any qualified Republican elector;
 - B. Standing Committee Chairmen may give their proxy to any member of the NRCC;
 - C. County representatives may give their proxy to any qualified Republican residing within the county (In case of the Executive Committee, representatives of the remaining counties as that term is used in Article 11, Section 1.A.2 may give their proxy to any qualified Republican elector residing within any of those counties);
 - D. State Legislators may give their proxy to any other Republican State Legislator or any qualified Republican elector residing within their legislative district;
 - E. Members representing Republican organizations may only give their proxy to qualified Republican electors who are members of the organization they represent.

Statement of Proxy Holder:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Nevada that the individual listed above assigned this proxy to me as stated above:
